Transformative Experts
Monday at 8 AM Pacific
November 2nd 2020: Responding to the World

Once a powerful politician and successful CEO, Cathleen Elle had her world turned upside down with the tragic loss of her son. Instead of throwing in the towel, she decided to own her future and reengineered her life. Now, she has transformed her life and helps others with trauma do the same. Being a leader is not just about achieving results. It's about owning your life, staying positive, and realizing your future. Join Chris and Cathleen this week as they share stories and discuss the power of transformation.
