

The Author's Journey
New shows weekly
March 8th 2021: Soul's Journey with Author Sam Yau

Tune in

New shows weekly on
VoiceAmerica Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Join us as Rebecca Hall Gruyter talks with poet, Sam Yau about his book: Soul's Journey. His book is a collection of poems that help readers to discover their soul's purpose, to heal life's traumas, and to regain their wholeness. The readers would find inspirations and pathways in the spiritual experiences and insights elucidated by the poems. The spiritual values of "we are one" and "unity in diversity" collectively heal our planet and create a more compassionate and equitable world. The poems are kernels of wisdom and gems of beauty in living as a soul – love, friendship, purpose, presence,

Read more

Featured Guest

Sam Yau

Sam Yau is a retired business executive, splitting his time between managing his investments and writing poetry. Sam has reinvented his life several times, from a 6month baby on a refugee boat, to a penniless student from a distant land, to the CEO of a billiondollar corporation, to the Chairman of a wellknown center for personal growth, to a poet who writes about souls journey, lifes vicissitudes, trauma and healing, consciousness, science and spirituality, and mysticism. Sam has an MBA in Finance with University of Chicago. Sam is a single parent living with his 14year daughter in Laguna Beach. Sam enjoys music, hiking, and active travel around the world. Find him online at: <http://>

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Read what our hosts are writing about.

