March 15th 2021: Rewilding Our Hearts with Marc Bekoff

Rewilding has long been a conservation term for connectivity and creating corridors for wildlife movement. In recent decades, it is the concept finding suitable existing habitats for species on the brink of extinction that may exist outside of where they currently live or are being extirpated. Today there is a new meaning. My guest Marc Bekoff, discusses his book, 'Rewilding Our Hearts: Building Pathways of Compassion and Coexistence'. Rewilding in this sense brings us to an understanding if not to undo, at least find ways to fix what we've done, to transform and rehabilitate ourselves. From p
