April 12th 2021: Encore: It Takes a Team!

Having the right team can be the difference between success and utter failure in any business but it is even more true when it comes to investment properties and alternative investments because the risks are high and the opportunities are typically unknown or in a saturated market, so you have to stand out! Having the right team in place to make that happen is critical and then the support afterward even more so to make sure that you can show your investors that follow through which leads to bigger and better returns! With us this week is Joe Volk of NVMS, Joe will shed some needed light
