Christopher Cross

In a career spanning over five decades, Cross has sold over 10 million albums. His music has garnered five Grammys, an Oscar, a Golden Globe, an Emmy nomination and five Top 10 singles. Within a year of the first album's release, Cross was keeping company with music royalty like Burt Bacharach and Carole Bayer Sager and through that collaboration won an Oscar for "Arthur's Theme," the theme song for the movie Arthur. With his 1983 release, Another Page, Cross was again in the Top 10 with the singles "Alright" and "Think of Laura." His song, "Swept Away," composed for the hit television series, Growing Pains, was nominated for an Emmy in 1988. His creative flame continues to burn brighter
