June 9th 2021: Keep On Truck'in? . . . America's Highway Sentinels .

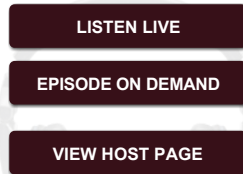

During my career in the insurance business I had many business clients and not the least of these being Owner Operator Long Haul Truck Drivers. Their profession is not only highly skilled but essential to the economic sustainability of this nation. Products are worthless unless they can be transported to stores that market to the consumer. At one time a long haul truck driver could earn after expenses a good living for his family but today with rising costs, the owner operator ranks have shrunken to single digit representation of the industry. Gone are the Peterbilt and Kenworth days of p

Max Moyseyenko

Maksym (Max) Moyseyenko was born in Kiev, Ukraine on 01/28/1985. His mom immigrated to Unites States in 1992 and after becoming US Citizen she applied for Max's Green Card to come to US. Max came to the Unites States, directly to Orange County, on July 1st, 2003, and after satisfying all of the requirements for naturalization on October 24th, 2012 Max became citizen of the United States of America which, in his own words: "was one of the most important moments in his life." When Max came to the US in 2003, he basically did not speak any English so had to start from scratch which did not stop him from getting a job the very same year at BNC Mortgage which later became Leahman Brothers.
