June 7th 2021: Lukas Knab talks being an entrepreneur as a circus performer!

Today we are talking with the fabulous Lukas Knab. Lukas owns a circus entertainment company, where he books himself and his circus friends to perform at events, teaches yoga and fitness, and he also does massage therapy, among other things. Over the years he has worked doing all kinds of crazy events, he has done his arts in film and TV, and has traveled around the world getting paid to do what he loves! Lukas lives to inspire creativity in others and to encourage kind-hearted people, who struggle with confidence, to follow their passions and break out of their shells. Maybe he has some tip

Lukas Knab

Lukas Knab is a self employed artist and entrepreneur. He spent many years doing odd jobs that didn't give him the feeling of worth and passion he desired. Always feeling like he was just trading his life away for something he really wasn't interested in. One thing he did know, is that he loved to move, learn, and to practice. Through that practice, inspired partly by the need to escape whatever work reality he was doing, he was able to hone his arts. As he practiced, more and more opportunities that paid him for his passions started to arise. Though he never intended for these arts and passions to be his career, his love for his art forms was noticed by others, and opportunities to be
