When it comes to wealth how much is enough? What impact do you want your money to have and how do you heal your relationship with money through family values? My guest Brandon Hatton is an expert at portfolio creation and wealth maintenance based on Conscious Wealth practices and is perfectly placed to answer these questions. Brandon specialises in family dynamics around multi-generational wealth and advising clients on how to use their financial assets to help make a positive societal impact, whether through investments or philanthropy and I have a sense we are in for some really valuable

Brandon Hatton

A consistent, process-driven individual, Brandon Hatton enjoys the fulfilment that working with people brings, revelling in the quixotic, creative, methodical nature of portfolio creation and wealth maintenance based on Con-scious Wealth practices. Brandon specializes in family dynamics around multi-generational wealth and is well-versed in advising clients on how to use their financial assets to help make a positive societal impact, whether through investments or philan-thropy. This can mean include facilitating an exit from a company, a transfer of wealth, or preparedness for the next generation. He endeavours to help his clients live an abundant life with intention. For him, an intentio
