October 13th 2021: A Renaissance of State Power

It's not hard to find abuses of federal power. What is more frustrating than finding those abuses is the realization of the uphill battle to get the elected officials to do their jobs in oversight. What has been overlooked in this time federal overreach has been the power of the States. The States created and gave the power to the federal government, reserving rights not specifically granted to the feds. The States are the last line of defense during a time of power grabs and Constitutional shredding. This weeks show will focus on what States can do to curb federal overreach, protect your right
