November 24th 2021: Forgiving for Your Thanksgiving

What does Thanksgiving mean to you? For many people, it is a time to reflect upon what they are grateful for in life and an opportunity to get together with family and friends in gratitude and appreciation of one another. Yet, for many people, it could also be a challenging time because of past hurts sustained in relation to one or more of those who will be coming together. Can you be grateful when you are holding a grudge, carrying guilt, or dwelling on judgment and blame against someone? Forgiveness may be the most important preparation for celebrating Thanksgiving. Tune-in to this powerf
