November 8th 2021: From PTSD to Entrepreneurial Success

Brian Reese is a veteran who, like others, suffered from PTSD along with bipolar disorder, depression and anxiety. These mental health obstacles, as well as the belief of "service before self," created a false narrative that he didn't deserve benefits that were due to him. But this isn't true. All veterans deserve their hard-earned medical benefits. Unfortunately, the system is complicated and many find it a daunting task to navigate. Being entrepreneurial minded, Brian started a business and has written a book focused on helping veterans to just that. It is a great success story that illustra
