January 13th 2022: Living the True Values of 2022: Love, Harmony, and Balance

Everything has energy, including numbers. That's why I have Alice on my show at the beginning of every year. She gives us valuable insight into how to use the dominant energies of the year to our advantage. When we are in sync with the Universal energies, our lives flow with more ease, joy, and grace. Two is the number of the Divine Feminine, which is interesting because there are three 2's in 2022, and love, harmony, and balance are all qualities of the Divine Feminine. It is important to note that regardless of our gender, we all have characteristics within us that reflect the Divine Feminine

Featured Guest

Alice Rosen

Alice Rosen has studied numerology for 30 years. Using her vast knowledge and expertise of numbers, and with the guidance of her angels, she has accurately helped her clients pick the best time to move, begin a new business venture and start a family. She has also offered help and understanding in dealing with the complexities of her clients' personal and professional relationships. Alice provides insight on how to navigate the paths each person has chosen as well as predict some of the challenges that inevitably each individual will encounter on their continuous journey. Her goal is to help each client become the person they are meant to be. If you would like to schedule an Intuitive Numero
