Living Strong: The Flip Side of Adversity
Thursday at 2 PM Pacific
January 13th 2022: The Flip Side of Adversity is Faith

Webster's defines faith as a strong belief, complete trust, or confidence in someone or something. As we move through life our experiences often shape what we begin to believe about ourselves, our world, and our place in it. Our guest, Renee Chenault-Fattah, shares how flipping the faith she had in her own story has led her through the flip side of adversity. Changing her belief and confidence in the story she told herself about herself has led to advocacy, social equity, and legacy for others.
