May 9th 2022: Children and Emotional Intelligence

Children are an important part of our society and families. They add value and purpose to our lives in a variety of ways and ranges. Teaching children social-emotional skills early are essential for connecting with others! They help them learn, understand and manage their emotions, build healthy relationships, and feel empathy. Do you know that teaching babies social-emotional skills is just as important? Let's join the conversation; children and social-emotional intelligence with Your Therapy Doctor will shed some light on new studies and ways to teach children social-emotional skills from b
