"It is our birthright: To acknowledge a higher power, no matter what you call it. To trust that every person was born perfect and is deeply loved by their Creator. To understand that being yourself is your life-purpose, no matter what. To know you were born at this time because the planet needs who you are--as you are." My guest asserts that these spiritual truths are essential for good mental health. This is our shared foundation, no matter what religion we practice. It is the underpinning of a healthy, happy, and high functioning human being, society, and world. It is what we need for peace
