A conversation with David Corbin is truly like none other. His insights and analysis of every situation are truly unique; any opportunity to hear him is one not to be missed. During this episode I benefitted from a real time assessment of my own frustrations as a consultant in the nursing home sector, I know his analysis, insight and feedback will be valuable for every listener no matter their background or area of business. David is like a beacon of light for entrepreneurs. His fundamental concept about facing the issues in order to correct course are integral to his concept of illum

David M. Corbin

David M. Corbin has been referred to as "Robin Williams with an MBA" because of his very practical, high-content speeches, coupled with real life, entertaining and sometimes side-splitting stories and applications. He's know as the "Mentor to Mentors" and Entrepreneur Guru as he's trained and advised, mentored and guided many luminaries in the fields of speaking, consulting, entrepreneurship and big business. A former crisis intervention counselor with a background in healthcare, he has served as a management and leadership consultant to businesses and organizations of all sizes—from Fortune 20 companies to businesses with less than 1 million—and enjoys the challenges of all.. He has been a
