July 28th 2005: Heidi Horsley-Redding: How Can I Help Them? Adolescents Grieve Too

Dr. Heidi Horsley, Adjunct Professor, Columbia University, and Primary researcher for the FDNY/Columbia University Family Assessment Program, and bereaved sibling, will discuss her research, personal experience, and work with bereaved adolescents. Dr. Horsley is very sensitive to the needs of teens and has co-authored a book, "Making the Best of the Worst: A message of Hope for Grieving Teens" due to be released in January of 06. Dr. Horsley will give us tips on how to acknowledge the adolescents response to loss and pointers on how to help them establish a "new normal." This is
