February 23rd 2006: Healing The Broken Bond: Mourning Pregnancy Loss with Dr. Irv Leon and Dr. Heidi Horsley

Dr. Irv Leon, clinical psychologist, discusses what is unique about pregnancy losses and suggests practical ways to deal with grief. Dr. Leon maintains a private practice as well as teaching at the University of Michigan Medical School. He is the author of "When a Baby Dies: Psychotherapy for Pregnancy and Newborn Loss". Dr. Leon's thirty years of clinical experience is complemented by his personal losses including the death of an older brother during childhood, his wife's three ectopic pregnancies, and unsuccessful attempts at IVF. Join Drs Gloria and Heidi Horsley as they talk
