Whether you are a novice, an experienced investor, or a financial advisor, tune into Empirical Investing Radio to stay abreast of the latest financial techniques used to maximize and protect your wealth. Hosts, Ken Smith and Ethan Broga will lead you through an entertaining journey to separate hype from evidence when it comes to building your wealth. Many programs provide either an abundance of information or pure entertainment. Information is something like "the market went down today because of poor earnings reports..." This piece of information is nothing more than useless noise. On the
