November 28th 2006: Shirley Levi: Spirit of Autism in Art and Song

Join Betsy in this very special interview with visionary artist, singer, and songwriter Shirley Levi. From Shirley Levi's website: "I've made it my mission to use the undeniable power of MUSIC and ART to reach out to all people and help raise awareness about autism. I've learned much by working with such special people and feel that music and art can best portray their special qualities and spirit. They deserve to have a voice. I choose to focus on their abundance of beauty and special qualities rather than focusing on their social disabilities because that is what shines through in my eyes."
