May 31st 2007: A Mother's Journey Through Grief

Beth Page is the owner of Dakota Winds, a family owned business that originated from grief and grew because of hope. From their own experience with loss, Beth and her husband have designed some special gifts which celebrate the lasting memories of a lost loved one. Their inspiration was their four year old son, Dakota, who died after a two year battle with cancer. Through Dakota Winds, Beth shares her story and plant seeds of hope for brighter tomorrows into the hearts of others who are grieving.
