

Educational Leadership: What Else is Possible?

Archives Available

If you're like us, you have lived through more hours of meetings to explore the many challenges that you face than you really care to count. If you're like us, you left most of those meetings wondering if any real progress had been made or if the purpose was simply to rearrange the deck chairs and make it appear that something was being done.

If you're like us, after these meetings you have sought out colleagues for comfort, support, and new perspectives in order to make sense of the frustration and apparent madness you find yourself in.

We intend to change that.

We
