The Financial Physician Archives Available

I've met with thousands of clients and witnessed the pain and suffering ignorance inflicts. As the host of The Financial Physician, I've answered questions for thousands of callers and discussed their concerns. In the process, I've developed a unique approach. When I first tried to advise people, many didn't understand or resisted my suggestions. So I decided to try a different technique. I became the Financial Physician and began explaining finance by using analogies to physical health. Suddenly, they understood. I emphasized that physical and financial fitness are both crucial and that thei
