June 25th 2007: Protecting Your Rights in Sickness and Health

Planning for the possibility of a long illness and preparing for the end of life can be scary, confusing and a daunting challenge. Wynne Whitman, a prominent estate planning lawyer with the firm of Schenck, Price, Smith and King in Morristown, New Jersey, and co-author of Wants, Wishes and Wills: A Medical and Legal Guide to Protecting Yourself and Your Family in Sickness and in Health, explains what you need to do to tackle all the issues surrounding disease and death in this interview. She describes how to create your own personal health care system, create legal powers of attorney and prote
