Open to Hope Archives available July 12th 2007: Honoring a young child's death

In February, of 2000, Nancy Thomason's 17 month old son, Cade, died due to a brain tumor. At the time of Cade's death Nancy vowed to fight the disease in honor of her son. Nancy founded the Oklahoma Brain Tumor Foundation and began the first organization for brain tumor patients in Oklahoma. Nancy talks candidly about her deep faith in God and divinely inspired mission and passion to not let her son's suffering and death be without reason. Nancy will be a keynote speaker at the 30th National Compassionate Friends Conference, "Trails of Tears to Healing Hearts". Oklahoma City, July 20th thr
