

Leading Conversations Friday at 10 AM Pacific

July 20th 2007: Globalization: It's a Matter of Fairness

Cheryl Esposito welcomes Karen Tramontano, Founder and President of the Global Fairness Initiative (GFI). Globalization brings opportunity, but not for everyone. A partner in the Clinton Global Initiative, GFI's premise is that economic globalization can and should work to improve the lives of impoverished populations around the world, creating jobs and economic opportunities. A key to their successful implementation of international projects is GFI's work to forge critical relationships between stakeholders and facilitating dialogue often when it seemed impossible. Karen's background has prep
