On our show we will discuss why conventional marriage should be abandoned for long term relationships based on choice, changes in life structure and relevance to each partner. My belief is that marriage is a habit and pattern that is cultivated within society from archaic rituals and ceremonies brought forth from the middle ages. Marriage has been perpetuated as the way into a long term relationship, rife with obstacles and undue burdens to both involved. If you are not married, you fall into a non-status within our society. We have just begun to recognize those choosing not to marry to have t
