September 24th 2007: How to Profit From the Explosive Growth of the Colored Diamond Market

One of the fastest-growing areas of investment in the world is rare colored diamonds. Prices have been rising at about 25% a year because they are rare, beautiful and valuable. Investors continue to increase their colored diamond holdings because of the loss of confidence in paper money as well as the fact that colored diamonds are a good hedge against inflation. Garry Cooke, the North American Representative for Pastor-Genève, one of the world's leading colored diamond dealers, explains in this interview how to select the most rare colored diamonds and how the whole investment process works
