

Small Business Capital America Archives Available

The focus of the show is to provide education to small business owners and entrepreneurs regarding business capital creation and management, helping them to understand the various options that are available. The show topics will center around the two ways of creating business capital which is profits (increased sales and reduced expenses), and external capital, specifically debt capital. We will explore and evaluate these options. Michael Schumacher will interview noted suppliers and key thought leaders while taking your questions via e-mail.
