January 31st 2008: Finding meaning after the deaths of two children

Rosemary Smith, wife, mother, pharmacist, author, speaker, and documentarian, lives in Beattyville, Kentucky. After losing her two oldest sons Drew and Jeremiah on July 23, 1992, she dedicated her life to helping other families cope with the immense pain of losing a child. Through the authoring of her book, Children of the Dome, Rosemary shares the journey of her personal loss along with twenty-seven other families and how they survived the loss of a child. She and her husband Luther have co-produced a documentary, "Space Between Breaths," that explores what loss can teach us about a life f
