July 29th 2008: Childhood Friends and The Treasures We Left Behind

Remember when friendships were made - not for social climbing or business partnerships - but because we simply liked each other? Today's guest, Wynn "Biff" Sherman, author of Miles of Heart, warms our hearts with his saga of enduring friendship among men who march to different drums, but have been sharing their triumphs and tragedies since 1970, at their annual Hearts Tournaments.
