October 29th 2008: Muscle Aging Part III / Food, Vitamins and Antioxidants

Muscle building vs. muscle damaging foods, what key amino acids are deficient in our diet? What are the consequences? Is protein supplementation critical? Why are most protein products today degraded and why you should NEVER give them to your cat or dog? Are vitamins and antioxidant supplements beneficial or could they possibly be harmful? Don't miss our special offer exclusively for the Warrior within listeners – your one WEEK ONLY opportunity to get the best muscle nourishing product available today for over 50% discount.
