4PM ET (1PM PT)

Frankly Speaking About Cancer with the Cancer Support Community
Tuesdays at 1 PM Pacific
November 11th 2008: Coping with Cancer and Improving the Quality of Your Life

If you're battling cancer, you're probably not feeling great. You're spending time at doctor visits and going to treatments, and between them, you're tired. Perhaps you're a private person and never thought about sharing your experience with strangers before. Why is it important to address your emotional needs? Host Kim Thiboldeaux and guests will discuss the rewards of being a participant at The Wellness Community, a unique group that knows first-hand what a cancer survivor or caregiver is going through and why it can be so helpful to the survivors' overall health and sense of well-being.
