Autism One: A Conversation of Hope Archives Available

November 18th 2008:teach2talk™ with Sarah Clifford Schefflen, M.S., CCC-SLP

Sarah Clifford Schefflen, M.S., CCC-SLP, is a practicing speech language pathologist who specializes in providing therapy to children, including children with autism spectrum disorder and other pervasive developmental disorders. Sarah works in a clinic at a major research university in Los Angeles, California and also has a private practice. While working with children, Sarah uses a variety of techniques, including video modeling, to teach speech and language, social and other pragmatic and play skills. One of her clients is Evan, Jenny McCarthy's son, who has made significant progress using th
