December 08th 2008: How Women Can Take Charge of Their Personal Finances

Sharon Kedar, who has a Harvard MBA and is a portfolio manager, knows that many American women are not adept at taking care of their personal finances. So she wrote On My Own Two Feet, a book which helps empower women to take care of their own money decisions. 90% of women will find themselves as the sole keeper of their personal finances at some point in their lives and most are woefully unprepared to do so. In this interview, Sharon helps women with decisions on budgeting, investing and setting up good money systems when you get married.
