December 09th 2008: Part 2 - Immune Abnormalities in Autism

Aristo Vojdani, PhD and Teri talked about components of the immune system, autoimmunity, natural killer cell activity, and more in Part 1 of this interview on December 2. Part 2 will continue with dietary factors in autoimmunity. Drawing on the topics highlighted in both shows, what clinicians can do to help children will be discussed. Aristo Vojdani, PhD is the Founder, CEO and Director of Research and Development at Immunosciences Lab., Inc., where he explores the development of novel techniques for the diagnosis of immune disorders, as well as the role of infectious agents, xenobiotics and
