February 06th 2009: The Birth of Caring Societies

Cheryl Esposito welcomes Riane Eisler, bestselling author of The Real Wealth of Nations: Creating a Caring Economics; The Chalice & the Blade and The Power of Partnership. Riane recognizes, "Our nation and our world are hungry for new ways of thinking." She sees opportunity for a sympathetic world by creating "caring societies" working through the economic system. "And as long as caring is off the economic scale, it's not realistic to expect more caring government and business policies." Riane emphasizes bringing a new type of cooperation into politics. "Partnership politics takes us outside t
