February 21st 2009: The Rape Declaration Forum - Encore

The Rape Declaration Forum (<http://tinyurl.com/RapeDeclarationForum>) is a live, call-in radio show based in New York City, in which rape and crime survivors who are willing to share, help themselves and others heal by telling their stories on air. Each caller has free space to explain what happened to them and the lessons they learned from their trauma and abuse. For example, the Forum recently aired an interview with a woman who was sexually molested as a child, talking about how she has put what happened into perspective and moved on. Crime Prevention 101 hosted this show in January and
