May 18th 2009: Money Answers Show with Jordan Goodman
on VoiceAmerica Business

Smart Money Strategies in a Recession Many Americans find themselves in difficult financial circumstances and don't know the best ways to cope. Ted Beck, president of the National Endowment for Financial Education, has many of the answers they are looking for. In this interview, he explains how to survive the loss of a job, how to deal with creditor calls, what to look out for if you need to modify your mortgage, how to protect yourself against identity theft and how to make the most of your employee benefits, among other topics.
