July 06th 2009: How to Earn the Best Rates on your Cash Today

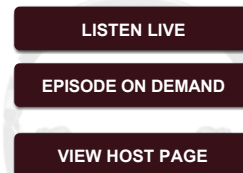

Richard Barrington is the chief personal finance expert for MoneyRates.com, which is one of the leading websites to help consumers earn the highest yields on their cash. In this interview, he will explain the current economic environment and give advice on how consumers can earn the highest yields on their cash and still not take too much risk. He discusses CDs, savings accounts, money market funds and other alternatives to keeping your money in a checking account where it earns nothing. He also provides his views on whether inflation or deflation is the greater threat now and what you should
