At the moment of conception millions of units of life-giving energy engage in an ancient battle to bring new light into the world. If you are reading or listening to these words you are a winner. Why you may well ask? You were the one unit that earned the right to be born. You took the spark ignited at the moment of conception into a flame and got a real chance of fulfilling destiny. The world's education has taught us the rights we can expect from the land of our birth. Are there any spiritual/universal rights given to us at birth? Do you know what these are? Looking for a hint?
