November 09th 2009: Making the Smartest Year End Tax Moves

There have been many changes in the tax code in recent years and you must take action on several fronts to take full advantage of them by the end of this year. Robert Scharin, Senior Tax Analyst of Thomson Reuters, explains what you need to know as it relates to Roth IRAs and other retirement plans, and several other areas of the tax code. He also discusses potential tax changes that will be likely to happen in 2010 and how you can prepare for them now.
