Most people don't equate getting a vasectomy with more pleasure in their lives, but Rob Hunter, Author of Real Men Get Snipped found that after his vasectomy he was enjoying "stress free" sex. I can't tell you how many countless couples aren't having sex for fear of getting pregnant. There is a silent epidemic in this country which is called the "sexless marriage", and I firmly believe that fear of another pregnancy is one of the main culprits. Women withdraw sex, and men are terrified to get "snipped". But luckily there are people like Rob, who have done their homework around the topic.

Rob Hunter

Rob Hunter lives in New Jersey with his beautiful wife and three wonderful children. Terrified of a fourth pregnancy, his wife "closed up shop" until further notice. Admittedly nervous about getting "snipped", Rob embarked on a personal mission...to find out as much information about the vasectomy procedure as possible.
