December 07th 2009: Lee Nystrom

Lee Nystrom played one (1) year in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers in 1974. He currently serves as the Chairman of the Board for the NFL Alumni Association. The NFL Alumni Association is the oldest and largest association of retired professional football players. The organization recently joined forces with Fourth and Goal, an independent retired-player advocacy group, to give retired players a single, national spokesman that can effectively advocate their interests before the National Football League and the NFL Players Association. In addition to raising money for charity through its "Car
