December 10th 2009: God's Among Men

Greek Gods have held the fascination and interest of people for centuries, due to their larger than life strengths and foresight. In America and the world athletes hold the same fascination. Although they may not be able to hold the world on their shoulders, they take to their perspective fields every game, and give all they have with their blood, sweat, and tears. This week we will speak with Emery Moorehead, Super Bowl XX Champion, about his life on the field, off the field, and after football. You could even say his son Aaron Moorehead and himself are today's real life Zeus and Hercules, as
