December 14th 2009: "What are we doing to our kids?" THE DISEASE OF ME!

The focus of money, scholarships and fame is changing the sports landscape. What are we doing to our kids? The attention on getting something other than learning how to work with others out of team sport is shifting the overall lessons learned. Why are we as a society so "I" centered instead of "WE" centered? Get over it and let's get back to the basics. Look what it's doing to our kids.

Featured Guest

Doug Harris

Coach Doug Harris is in his 7th year as the head boys varsity basketball coach at Desert Vista. He has compiled an overall record of 107 wins and 42 losses. Coach Harris attended Corona Del Sol, where he won a state championship as a player and was also awarded the 1990 Arizona "Player of the Year" as well as Gatorade "Circle of Champions" state player of the year. He later received a scholarship to attend and play at the University of San Diego, where he was a three time all-conference performer. Under Coach Harris's tenure the thunder have won four region titles, four final four appearances, two state championship games appearances, and the thunder's first ever state championship in 2008.
