December 29th 2009: Stories of Miracles for the New Year

We could all use a miracle about now, what with the economy and the underwear bomber, on top of personal problems. Today's guest, Sid Roth, an investigative journalist in modern-day miracles, has devoted his life to interviewing people all over the globe for inspiring true stories. He is a best-selling author of numerous books, including his autobiography, There Must Be Something More.
