January 4th 2010: WORLD AFFAIRS: "A Philosophical Perspective of the Social and Economic Status of Our World Today."

Leo Hirschocker joins David Gibbons "In Discussion" to recollect a life's journey and the experiences he holds in both personal and philosophical terms. Moving from Austria to a developing South Africa in the 1970's, Hirschocker has seen profound changes in the world's socio-economic makeup and shares views on a wide range of subjects including Apartheid and the European Union's federal shaping. His intelligent and sober views are thought provoking raising many interesting points of interest.
