January 14th 2010:Amateurs Solving Murders and Abusive Partners

Do you have a frustrated inner detective who'd love to solve cold murder cases or help grieving families find missing children? Well, millions of amateur sleuths are really out there solving actual crimes via the internet. It's called websleuthing and it's all the rage. This week, Crime Prevention Specialist Susan Bartelstone talks with Tricia Griffith, owner of Websleuths.com, which has more than 20 million participants, about how web sleuthing got so popular and what crimes have been solved by these dedicated amateurs. Then stay tuned as Susan discusses the question: How do you know i
