Hear the fascinating and emotional story from Jowi Taylor of the Six String Nation Guitar made from sixty-four pieces of Canadian history and heritage representing many different cultures, communities and characters. The guitar has travelled thousands of kilometres across Canada played by hundreds of musicians and held by thousands of people. Jowie talks about the genesis of the project, his quest to put history in the hands of Canadians and the journey so far. "Its more than just a guitar - its a history book that you can play music on"- Andy Stochansky. For more information visit www.sixstr
